Journals

Titles of journals available in the IOE library (both print and electronic) are listed in the catalogue. Search by title and browse journals. This is only an effective search to use if you know the title of the journal you wish to look at.

If you wish to search for journal articles on a particular subject, you will need to use one of our range of electronic databases. There is a guide to help you with Finding journal articles in the Guides section of the library web pages

Electronic Databases

The IOE Library subscribes to a range of electronic databases. In addition to specialist education databases like British Education Index and ERIC, we offer access to databases which cover a broad range of social science and humanities subjects such as Web of Science and ASSIA. See the Library web pages for the full list, plus guides to help you make the most effective searches.

The main specialist databases for Psychology are available at Senate House Library.
